Medicine and Politics: what is the difference?

Dr Sarah Wollaston, Former Chair of the Parliamentary Health Select Committee

Sarah qualified from Guy's, now part of Kings College, London in 1986. She has worked as a GP, in education teaching medical students and as a GP trainer and examiner for the RCGP. She has also worked as a forensic medical examiner with victims of sexual violence.

Sarah represented Totnes in Parliament from 2010 to 2019 and was elected by MPs from both sides of the House of Commons to chair the cross-Party Health and Social Care Select Committee from 2014 to 2019. After leaving politics at the last election Sarah returned to front line practice and in December 2021 was appointed chair of the Integrated Care System for Devon.

She fell in love on a tandem and is still riding.

Please note this talk will be taking place remotely, via Zoom.

We hope you will be able to join us.

COVID-19: Due to the uncertainty surrounding Government restrictions we have made the difficult decision to move our January meeting online. We appreciate that this is disappointing news but hope you will tune in remotely to support our speaker. We will be in touch in the New Year with the Zoom link.
